Dear Mr Hogarth,
Many thanks for this clarification. If you could send me over a sample for our records that would be much appreciated.
Many Thanks

Dear Mrs Teasdale,

After speaking to Mr Catley at the weekend I now have the correct full details of the slate I would like to use: -

"Fresco Blue Grey T1 S1 A1 Slate", country of origin China, and supplied by MKM Building Supplies, Stainsacre Lane Industrial Estate, Fairfield Way, Whitby.

I'll be happy to bring you the sample should you wish to see it.

Thanks and regards,
Paul Hogarth.

Dear Mrs Teasdale,

Many thanks for your prompt reply. The colour will be the standard "Anthracite Grey RAL 7016"

Best regards,

Paul Hogarth.

Dear Mr Hogarth,

Thank you for your email, having looked back at the conditions associated with the application this morning I note that it is just the finish of the doors that we need to know about.

Therefore if you know the colour that you plan to go for I can include it on this CVC application for you to save having to consider this, and pay an additional fee again later.

Provided the doors are as shown on the plans I am unable to comment on which you should use.

I look forward from hearing from you, and once I have, I will get the final letter out to you with regard to the slate.

Kind regards

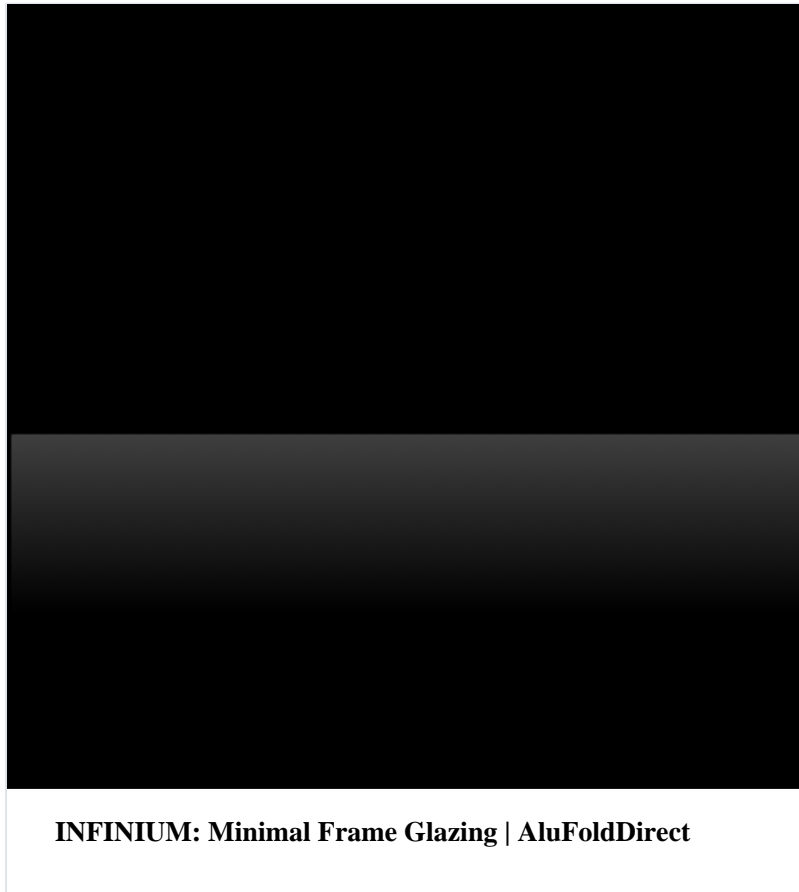

Ailsa Teasdale

Dear Mrs Teasdale,

I have a hard copy of a brochure from AlufoldDirect, they're from Blackburn and supply bi-folding doors, sliding doors, slimline windows etc., and I'm thinking I would perhaps like to use a combination of these types of products.

Here's a link to their site:- INFINIUM: Minimal Frame Glazing | AluFoldDirect

The "Infinium" glazing looks great - but I bet it's expensive!

Another company is "BM Bi-folding Doors" who also have similar products:- BM Bi-Folding Doors

BM Bi-Folding Doors

Also, I need to consider the thermal values, triple glazing would be ideal. Your comments please?

Many thanks,

Paul Hogarth.

Great thank you.

If you want me to comment on the window please send the info across and I'll have a look at them for you.

Kind regards

Dear Mrs Teasdale,

I'll send the slate sample to you a.s.a.p.

Also, regarding the windows and doors, (which are still some time away), I'd appreciate your input at an early stage to make sure I'm on the right track. How do I go about that please?

Many thanks,

Paul Hogarth.
