

Design & Access Statement

Following an inspection it was identified that the current render was no longer adequate in protecting the property & shed and was enabling water ingress into the property/shed.

The render type can be found in the accompanying brochure and will be a cream colour in line with other surrounding rendered properties.

Please see photos of current render included in this document.

