Yes please, we have always said we would amend descriptions to give best idea to public of what's involved.

Hi Mark,

I've just been thinking about the description for this which is "use of land for the siting of 12 no. tents for holiday letting purposes

Should we make it clear that it's actually a proposal to site bell tents – rather than a traditional campsite where campers bring their own tents. The description does say "siting of 12 tents – should we change to "use of land for the siting of 12 no. fixed bell tents for holiday letting purposes"?

They're proposing short term stays but having the tents in place for up to 7 months

Thanks

Hilary
