I wish to object to the above numbered planning application:

Firstly the application notice bears no relation to the site which is being considered. I have rung your office about this but was assured by the relevant planning officer that it was satisfactory and it almost seems to be a ploy to hide the application. Many local people had not seen it and it is only through discussion and meeting others that it has become public knowledge.

The quarter deck is often a quiet contemplative area where people can sit [often on their loved one's memorial seat] and enjoy the magnificent view. In my view this aspect of Robin Hood's Bay would be lost.

Robin Hood's bay is busy and bustling with many food outlets, pubs and shops, many of these businesses are run by people who live in this village and depend on this for their livelihood. This proposed "hut" is just another money making business to add to the businesses already owned by the applicant to add to his considerable wealth, much of which is generated by Robin Hood's Bay.

Litter is already a problem in this area and will be greatly increased if this planning application goes through.

I strongly object to this application and think it would be detrimental to Robin Hood's Bay
