Dear Harriet,

Fylingdales Parish Council discussed Gallery Cottage at their last meeting and made the following comments:

The proposals are a huge improvement and sympathetic to the original building.

The Parish Council is pleased to note that the changes have been made and respect shown for a listed building.

Regards,

Virginia Ramsey.

Dear Ms Ramsey

I am the planning officer dealing with the planning application at Gallery Cottage, Robin Hoods Bay which you objected to on 23 February 2018 on the basis that the proposed doors and windows were not in keeping with the character of the property.

The Authority's Building

Conservation team also objected to the application on similar grounds and since then we have been in lengthy discussions with the agent in order to come up with a suitable scheme.

At long last, I believe I am in a position to prepare the report and issue a decision, but I notice that you have not responded to the reconsultation carried out on 15 June 2018. It is my opinion that the amendments address your original concerns by providing a scheme which helps to preserve the character of the property.

I would be very grateful if you could get back to me with your comments on the revised scheme; the revised drawings and design and access statement have been attached to this email for ease.

Kind regards
Harriet

Harriet Frank
