Cast-iron water fountains once provided drinking water in Robin Hood's Bay.
This is an original Victorian fountain (re-installed in 2016) of the type formerly found here and outside the Laurel Inn.

Before mains water was connected to each property at the start of the 20th century,
The old fountain and adjacent public tap were in dally use to fill buckets for the residents.

Plaque to measure 400 mm by 270 mm

Stainless screws can be used to affix sign to wall

- 9 MAR 2016

The proposed sign at 2 Esplanade will be produced in the materials and colours shown below but the text will be combined so that only one sign is needed to limit visual clutter.
