

CCF RHB2.

One sign is proposed explaining the history of the standpipe which will be less than A4 paper size and formed of raised black writing on a white background.

The text will read:

Before mains water was connected to each property at the start of the 20th century these public taps were in daily use to fill buckets for Robin Hood's Bay Residents.

NYMP
-5 APR 2016