Hello Jill

Please see email below.

I managed to add an extra "o" in moors. My Email server did not like it!

Kind regards

Bill

Good afternoon Jill

I hope you are well and enjoying the more seasonal weather we are having!

Sorry for not getting back to you earlier on the outstanding item on this condition discharge application.

Please find attached a scanned of my proposed general arrangement drawing showing an amended external lighting layout.

As agreed, I have deleted the light on the West Elevation Courtyard wall outside of Bedroom 2.

This was the last outstanding matter to be resolved therefore I look forward to confirmation of all conditions discharge when you have an opportunity to do this.

Kind regards.

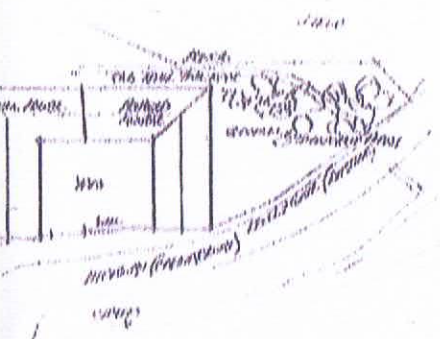

Bill

Hello Jill

Sorry for the delay in getting back to you on this.

Clients are OK with removal of the head drip over the doors/windows.

Also prepared to reduce the number of external lights but will get back to you when they decide which ones to remove.

Are there other details that you need more information on?

Sorry to hear that Cheryl has left the Authority, she will be missed, although I wish her all the best in her new position.

Hope you are well and enjoying the summer.

Kind regards

Bill
