

JB

Dawn Paton

From: Rona Charles
Sent: 13 October 2017 12:43
To: Jill Bastow
Cc: Planning
Subject: NYM/2017/0572 Jugger Howe Boardwalks, Fylingdales Moor and HRA

Jill

I have no ecological concerns with the existing boardwalks and am happy that they are retained for the reasons given by the applicant.

To meet the requirements of the Habitats Regulations, I consider that a likely significant effect can be ruled out. The retention of existing boardwalks does not represent any material change affecting the site. The boardwalks have previously been given consent by Natural England in order to minimise erosion, damage and disturbance.

Thanks

Rona Charles
Ecological Adviser

