Subject: Fernleigh windows

Hello Hilary,

Thank you for looking in to this for us.

Please see the photos below. Because the scaffolding is still up (we're waiting for it to be removed which hopefully should be any day soon) it's not easy to see the overall look. I've sent 2 additional photos one which shows how the windows are set behind the stone mullions so we continue to see the beauty of these, the other shows our neighbours house too so it's clear to see the uPVC windows he currently has in place.
