One of the region's most popular tourist attractions - Robin Hoods Bay is a jewel in the crown of North Yorkshire. A haven for tourists with its rugged coastline of rock pools and traditional seaside pleasures. Enjoying long walks along this magnificent beach is always a treat but one is always limited for places to stop and enjoy any refreshment - just a Youth Hostel at Boggle Hole.

Mr Kemp's application for a tea hut would fill that gap - it's structure in natural wood and interesting design that would blend perfectly into the area providing a great service for people not wanting to leave the beach. Most of the other cafes are sit-in but Graham Kemp's facility would be a take away, allowing folk to get a cup of tea or coffee and remain by the seaside.

I have known Graham personally and profession for more that 25 years. A loyal and true friend he is, and always has been, passionate about Yorkshire. Every project he's ever undertaken has received his utmost attention and consideration to enhance the county he calls home.

Knowing Graham as I do - if permission is granted for his tea hut on the Quarterdeck at Robin's Hood Bay, it would be an asset to all those who live and visit the Bay.
