Dear Ms. Saunders,

RE: PLANNING APPLICATION
FOULSYKE FARM, FYLINGDALES.

I refer to your letter dated 27th April, 2010.

As requested, I have re-located the stable block to the West of the farmhouse. The amended site plan is enclosed.

The stable block is a standard unit providing minimal facilities for 2 horses. The unit includes a tack room, 2 loose boxes and a small hay store. Although this was noted on the original drawing, I have added labels to the rooms to clarify.

As noted previously, this unit is for the owners use as they have 2 horses. The existing stable block approved in 2004 is adjacent to the holiday cottages and is for guest use, (as originally intended by the previous owner).

I acknowledge your comments regarding the fencing. The current owner bought the property during the summer of 2009. Although I was involved with the previous owner and his original planning application to convert the outbuildings into holiday cottages, I was not involved with the erection of any fencing.

Accepting that it is possible that the previous owner has carried out this work without permission, I would be grateful if you would allow me a little time to look into this matter with the current owner.

Meanwhile, I would appreciate it if you would continue to progress our current application. I have enclosed 2 copies of the amended drawings as discussed above.

Yours sincerely,
for Richard Agar Associates Limited,

R. Agar,
Director.
