
NZ 9505 (inset)

17/75

6.10.69.

FYLINGDALES

ESPLANADE, Robin Hood's Bay

Nos 2-11 consecutive.
(Formerly listed as Nos 1-10)

GV

II

Terrace of houses, early-mid C19. Pinkish brick in English garden wall bond, 1 and 5; Nos 5-8 rendered; stone dressings. Welsh slate roofs, blue and purple of varied sizes. Brick chimneys, some rendered. each 3 storeys, 1 wide bay. Door at left with low overlight; some original 6-panel doors, varied replacements; overlight mostly blocked. 16-pane sashes on ground and first floors, 9-pane on second floors, with wedge lintels and projecting cills. Nos 3, 4 and 9 have original windows complete, the others have later C19 sashes or modern casements, but all in original openings, except for late C19 canted bay on ground floor of No 7, No 8 has an added small porch with segmental lead roof. Rear view shows catslides, with dormers or rooflights, to several houses; some others have varied extensions, some gabled, some 2-storey with pitched roofs.
