

Access statement

Access to the site will be gained via the private farm road, through the farm yard and then through the existing gate way, which eliminates any need to build a further road on the outskirts of the farmstead.

The neighbouring cottage occupants will not have any disruption to their current view and are supportive of this planned route.

NYM
24 MAR 2014