Dear Alisa,

Concerning the application for a wood store and access at Overdale Egton.

Due to the death of my uncle my brother and I have been appointed executors we would like to raise an objection as we missed the first opportunity as my uncle was in the hospital from the 6th January for a month before his death.

We have had the estate agents out to value the property for probate and future sale of his bungalow, he says it makes a considerable difference to the value as the store is only 6 feet from the main living room window and it is also where he saws the wood so not only been unsightly there is the noise issue to consider.

In the access lane there are several white goods dumped, and the amount of wood delivered has got considerably bigger since we have been dealing with the property.

The access to Overdale is quiet narrow and if log wagons are parked or pulling out on the access road it will make this more difficult and dangerous.

Yours sincerely
Sandra Tindall
